'The Scottish musician redefining jazz for a new generation'

The National

"If Hiatus Kaiyote and Masters At Work had a child, corto.alto would be it - the future is now!"

Scottish composer, producer and multi-instrumentalist Liam Shortall, aka corto.alto has had an incredible couple of years : his debut album 'Bad With Names' was shortlisted for the iconic Mercury Prize (2024), won 'Best Album' at the Scottish Jazz Awards. In 2025, he won 'Act Of The Year' at the Jazz FM Awards, public vote with Ezra Collective and Nubya Garcia the other two nominees, as well as UK Independent Breakthrough at the Aim Awards.

Now signed to Ninja Tune , he's released two singles 'DON'T LISTEN' and 'VANDAL (feat. Moses Yoofee) which continue to showcase his natural ear for cross-pollination of styles. The tracks have received enormous radio support with over 1500 plays globally in less than 6 weeks as well as being on BBC 6 Music's A-Playlist for 4 weeks. The former was also included in the iconic 'FC26' soundtrack.

This is music on his own terms. Music that speaks not just to his time spent as part of the burgeoning and fertile music scene in Glasgow; but equally to an eclectic mix of influences that draw as much on his affinity with club-culture and all its forms of Electronic Music, or to his love of classic Hip-Hop, Soul and Funk.

Over the last 18 months, the band played over 120 shows, including West Holts stage at Glastonbury, closing the We Out Here main stage, headlining Latitude, North Sea, Montreux, Cross The Tracks and a sold-out UK tour culminating in playing to 2000 people in his home town at the legendary Barrowland Ballroom.

Championed by Gilles Peterson, Jamie Cullum, BBC 6 Music, KCRW, Jazzwise, Fip radio in France and RRR in Australia to name a few, as well as the editorial teams at Spotify, Apple Music and Bandcamp, 'corto.alto has also built a strong dedicated fanbase across the UK, EU and US.
